Master of Arts in Religious Studies

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY

GUEST REGISTRATION

Use this form to register for courses as a guest student

Guest graduate students are non-degree seeking students in one of the following categories:

1. Students who desire to take one or two courses at Taylor University for the specific purpose of transferring the credit earned to another institution
2. Those individuals who wish to take one or two courses solely for the purpose of self-improvement
3. Those individuals who anticipate applying for the Taylor University MARS program in the future.

Guest students may earn no more than 12 credit hours with this status. Transfer credit is not accepted while the student holds guest status. Students who wish to apply credits toward a masters degree must apply for regular admission to the MARS program. Application materials are available by contacting Dr. Michael Harbin, MARS program director.

Taylor University is a community of Christians who have joind together for the purpose of academic progress, personal development, and spiritual growth. Participation in the university community is based on the foundation of our commitment to the Lordship of Jesus Christ. Together we seek to honor Him by integrating faith and learning while our hearts and lives reflect the process of maturing in Christ. The expectations for participation in our community are outlined in the Life Together Covenant which is available at www.taylor.edu/about/ltc.

By enrolling at Taylor, I choose to freely and willingly commit myself to this community and the responsibilities outlined in the Life Together Covenant of Taylor University.
