

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY PRE-SEASON BASEBALL CAMP

Winter 2009

Join the Taylor Trojan coaches and players at our winter camp session where you will have the opportunity to begin tuning up for your upcoming spring or summer season. This camp consists of several skill stations in which you will get many repetitions focused on that particular skill. Offerings include sessions on hitting, pitching, catching, or a combination of hitting with either pitching or catching. Each camper will receive a Taylor Baseball Camp t-shirt. And best of all, campers will benefit from hands-on instruction from the Taylor University coaches and players.

Dates: Sundays, January 25, February 1, 8 (cost includes all three dates in the session)
Times: 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. (hitting), and 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. (pitching and catching)
Location: Kesler Student Activities Center, Taylor University campus

GENERAL CAMP INFORMATION

Enrollment – On receipt of your registration, a confirmation e-mail will be sent to you. Non-registered campers will be accepted at the door.

Suggested Clothing/Equipment – Wear comfortable workout clothing (i.e., sweatpants, shorts, baseball pants, t-shirt, sweatshirt, etc.) and turf shoes or tennis shoes. No rubber or steel cleats. Catchers should bring their own gear, as we have limited gear available. Hitters are encouraged to bring their own bat, but camp bats will be available for use at each station. Please mark all equipment with your name.

Rules – This camp is an extension of the Taylor University baseball program and all campers are a part of this image. Anyone not meeting the standards of our program is subject to dismissal from camp. These rules apply to all camp sessions.

Facilities – Kesler Center is Taylor University's beautiful new $12-million indoor activities facility, dedicated in the fall of 2004.
