

Amy M. Stucky

Education

Master of Arts, Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana. May 1998. Major in Physical Education with an emphasis in Administration of Physical Education and Sport at the Higher Education Level.

Research Project: Impact of CAAHEP Accreditation on the Internship Route to National Certification in Athletic Training at NCAA III and NAIA Colleges and Universities.

Bachelor of Arts, Taylor University, Upland, Indiana, May 1992.
Major in Biology with a minor in Athletic Training.

Professional Experience

1996 - Present Taylor University, Upland, Indiana
Associate Athletic Director, Senior Women's Administrator

- ◆ Assist the Athletic Director in daily athletic operations.
- ◆ Directly oversee all daily operations of the athletic department, assistant athletic directors, and athletic training department.
- ◆ Act as liaison between Human Resources and Athletic department in the areas of hiring and personnel.
- ◆ Serve as departmental computer ITP.
- ◆ Administration of home athletic contests and events.
- ◆ Administration of the Laundry facility which includes ordering supplies and supervision of student workers.
- ◆ Serve as a women's liaison to the university and community concerning gender equity issues.
- ◆ Complete the athletic department Equity in Athletics report for the U.S. Department of Education annually
- ◆ Assist in interpretation of women's athletic rules at both the NAIA and Mid-Central Conference level.
- ◆ Travel and administrate post season women's athletic events which include budget preparation, travel arrangements, and management of financial operations.
- ◆ Represent the university at the National and Conference level.
- ◆ Revise and implement varsity athletic award system.

1996 – Present Taylor University, Upland, Indiana
Assistant Professor in Physical Education and Human Performance Department

- ◆ Serve as academic advisor to athletic training students
- ◆ Teach courses in the athletic training major as well as various general education courses. Courses include:

Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries - Entry class to athletic training that focuses on the basic principles of injury care and prevention.

Physical Assessment - Advanced instruction and practical experience with the recognition, treatment, and prevention of specific athletic injuries and health conditions seen by the athletic trainer.

Other PHP Courses: Weight Control and Fitness, Aerobic Walking, Individualized Physical Education, First Aid, Principles of Coaching (team teaching).

- ◆ Serve as a member of the University Assessment Council

1995 - 2001 Taylor University, Upland, Indiana

Assistant Athletic Trainer

- ◆ Supervision, instruction, and administration of student athletic trainers.
- ◆ Provide athletic training coverage to 15 athletic teams.
- ◆ Primary and secondary care, injury evaluation, rehabilitation, counseling and administration of student athletes.
- ◆ Interact with other health care professionals.
- ◆ Assist the Head Athletic Trainer with the self-study in pursuit of CAAHEP accreditation for the university.

1993 – 1995 Fox Valley Orthopaedics, Geneva, Illinois

Clinical Athletic Trainer

- ◆ Clinical responsibilities included the development and supervision of exercise protocols and proper administration of modality treatments to patients of varying ages and professional backgrounds.
- ◆ Was assigned to an area High School to implement an athletic training coverage program.
- ◆ Responsible for the development and supervision of new student athletic training program, athletic coverage for 11 different sports, injury prevention and referral, rehabilitation and administration of an effective and efficient athletic training program.

1992 – 1993 Indiana Orthopedic and Sportherapy, Carmel, Indiana

Physical Therapy Aide

- ◆ Assisted a licensed Physical Therapist and Certified Athletic trainer with set-up and supervision of therapeutic modality treatments and various exercise protocols.

Summers 1990 – 2000 Athletic Trainer, Indiana Basketball Camp, Upland, Indiana

Additional professional activities

Professional memberships

National Athletic Trainers' Association (Certified April 18, 1993, #049302527)
Indiana State Licensure
First Aid Certification