

Mild Intervention Licensure

FAQs for I-SEAL

Q: Is there a grade point requirement (GPA) for admission to the Mild Intervention program?

No, but you must have a valid Indiana teaching license.

Q: Do I need to maintain a GPA?

Yes, you must maintain a 2.7 GPA and earn at least a C- in all coursework.

Q: Can Mild Intervention courses be waived based on previous coursework taken?

Yes, up to 50% of the required credit hours for the Mild Intervention Licensure can be transferred in. Courses previously taken at other institutions will be reviewed on an individual basis to see if they meet content criteria. Only courses with a grade of B- or higher and taken within the last seven years can be considered.

Q: How long do I have to complete my courses?

4 months

Q: How do I access my courses?

You can access the course management system (Blackboard) by logging into the Taylor portal at <https://my.taylor.edu> or directly at <https://courses.taylor.edu>.

Q: How do I get my textbooks?

Textbooks are free. Your academic advisor will order your e-textbooks prior to your course start date.

Q: How long will it take to complete the program?

The program is designed to be flexible. You could complete it in approximately 12-18 months if you are willing to commit the time to the program.

Q: Must I pass state tests?

Yes. Special Education: Core Knowledge and Mild to Moderate Applications (Praxis test code 5543)

Q: Does this program contain field experiences and student teaching?

Student teaching is not required, though the program does contain several courses in which field experiences are mandatory. Since the Mild Intervention Licensure is for P-12, you must complete at least one field experience in an elementary school and one in secondary.
